

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	11
Forward	13
Introduction	15
Part 1 – The foundational elements for rehearsal preparation	17
Chapter 1 – “LEAD” – Four actions toward more effective and efficient choral rehearsing	19
LISTEN: It all starts with listening.....	20
Beyond gesture: listening and reacting accordingly	21
The conductor’s listening skills.....	21
EDUCATE: The instructional choral rehearsal	22
Autonomous singers – learning together vs. learning alone	22
The interactive approach to the rehearsal process.....	22
ASSEMBLE: Building a monument of sound	23
Deconstructing a score at a glance	23
DARE: Room for imagination	24
Targeted experimentation	24
Chapter 2 – Choosing the right repertoire	25
The visual overview of the score	26
The basic assessment of the choral parts	26
Evaluating melodic characteristics	36
Assessing rhythmic complexity	40
Evaluating harmonic complexity	43
Evaluating instrumentation	49
Evaluating the role of instrumental parts	51
Chapter 3 – Efficient score study	57
Preparing for the first rehearsal.....	58
At-a-glance analysis	58
Rhythmic, harmonic and melodic components	59

Observational analysis.....	62
Step 1: Working at the piano–deconstructing to reconstruct	62
Step 2: Gathering information from external documents.....	68
Discovering the true essence of a choral work through score study	69
Drawing conclusions from the worksheet.....	73
Chapter 4 – Bringing the score to life	77
Concrete and dynamic score marking.....	78
Basic markings	78
Adding or reinforcing dynamics	80
Breath marks	81
Assigning rhythmic values to breath marks	83
Articulation symbols	87
The use of articulation symbols in choral singing	88
Carefully selecting and combining articulation symbols	90
Articulation symbols in relation to the text.....	92
The effect of articulation symbols on vocal production	92
The full use of score markings	93
Score marking as an expressive tool	98
Part 2 – Teaching in service of the rehearsal: structuring the reading process and adapting instruction to suit the context.....	101
Chapter 5 – Getting off to a good start	103
The first steps of the construction process	104
Successful first read-throughs.....	104
Optimizing the process	105
Vocal production and modification of dynamics.....	105
Choosing an efficient working tempo.....	106
Reading through the score together	106
Choosing the right first step	107
First read-throughs with the choir	107
Option 1 – A complete first read-through	107
Option 2 – A partial first read-through	108
Option 3 – A structured first read-through.....	108
Option 4 – A structured first read-through focusing on specific elements.....	109

Solmization in the context of options 2 and 3	110
Solmization when first reading through a score	110
Initial unveiling of structural elements	113
Introducing fugal materiel	114
Text declamation for the rhythmic reading of a passage	115
Highlighting a compositional technique	115
Highlighting a dramatic aspect through rhythmic recitation of the text	116
Presentation of musical motives drawn from other sources	118
Extracting a complex harmonic component	120
Error detection	121
The importance of identifying errors	121
Listening with a forgiving ear	122
Instilling confidence with choral entrances	123
Using the staccato articulation to pinpoint errors	125
Chapter 6 – The educational approach for adults in a choral singing context	127
The adult learner	128
The principles of andragogy	129
1. The need to understand	129
2. The concept of self	130
3. Recognition of prior experience	130
4. Readiness for learning	131
5. Contextualized learning	131
6. Motivation	132
Flow	132
Feedback and positive reinforcement	133
Being the guardian of the choir	134
Part 3 – Working sequentially on details	135
Chapter 7 – Working without the text	137
Replacing the words with neutral syllables	138
The syllables [pa] [ta] [ba] and [da]	139
The syllables [ti] and [di]	140

Adding voiced consonants to syllables: [bɪm], [dɪm], [dɪŋ], [pam], [piŋ], etc.	143
The syllables [ny] and [ly]	144
Combining multiple syllables.....	145
An example of contrasting articulations and textures	145
An example of contrasting dynamics	146
Working in opposition	148
Simultaneous use of syllables.....	148
The role of the text in the choice of syllables	149
Chapter 8 – Integrating structural components into the process	153
The integrated approach	154
Coordinating the work by block.....	158
Treating one component at a time	159
Reducing the texture to two voice parts.....	159
Overlapping and managing transitions between steps in the process.....	159
Contextualizing harmonic functions.....	160
Direct instruction.....	161
Correcting pitch problems based on the musical structure.....	162
Identifying errors and intonation problems in simple harmonic language settings.....	163
Integrating the accompaniment material into the work with the choir.....	163
Reinforcing the rhythmic integrity of a choral work.....	165
Gradually decreasing and accelerating the tempo.....	165
Rhythmic reading independent of the melodic component	166
Rhythmic reading by subdivision	167
Subdivisions of the basic pulse (tactus)	170
Alternating components during rehearsal	171
Chapter 9 – Tips for improving the rehearsal experience	173
Tip 1 – Specify logistical details before starting the rehearsal	174
Tip 2 – Establish a framework with clear, distinct objectives	175
Tip 3 – Maintain a smooth work rhythm	176
Tip 4 – Communicate instructions efficiently	177
Tip 5 – Finish a phrase before stopping to make corrections	179
Tip 6 – Choose the right moment to move on to the next step	180

Table of contents

Tip 7 – Alternate working with and without the piano.....	180
Tip 8 – Use your own voice as a rehearsal too.....	181
Tip 9 – Be fully familiar with the score to react effectively in the event of an error	182
Tip 10 – Use efficient conducting gestures during the rehearsal process	183
Tip 11 – Tune unison and octave passages.....	183
Tip 12 – Establish a basic legato.....	185
Tip 13 – Conduct the score rather than the singers	186
Tip 14 – Recognize how the text influences the interpretation	187
Tip 15 – Stand or sit?	188
Tip 16 – Don't abandon the process.....	189
Quick reference guide of practical tips.....	190
References.....	191
List of musical examples.....	191
List of figures	194
List of tables.....	195
Bibliography	195
Index.....	197
Biographical notes	201